We especially recall those individuals who have mentored us, touched our souls, and inspired us, through their demonstration of the highest standards of medical professional care.
- We also thank you God for our families, for their unconditional love, and their support of our professional careers.
- We give you thanks for our Association and College, for the successful guidance of our leaders, and the tireless dedication of our staff members.
- We pray that you continue to guide us all, in working together to fulfill our mission, for the betterment of our patients.
- And most importantly today, we thank you for all the talented physicians gathered here, to be inducted as Fellows into the American College of Endocrinology.
- May you bless them, and guide them, as they continue their professional journey, so that they may soar to new heights in the attainment of knowledge, wisdom, strength and compassion, in the care of their patients, and in the service of our profession.
